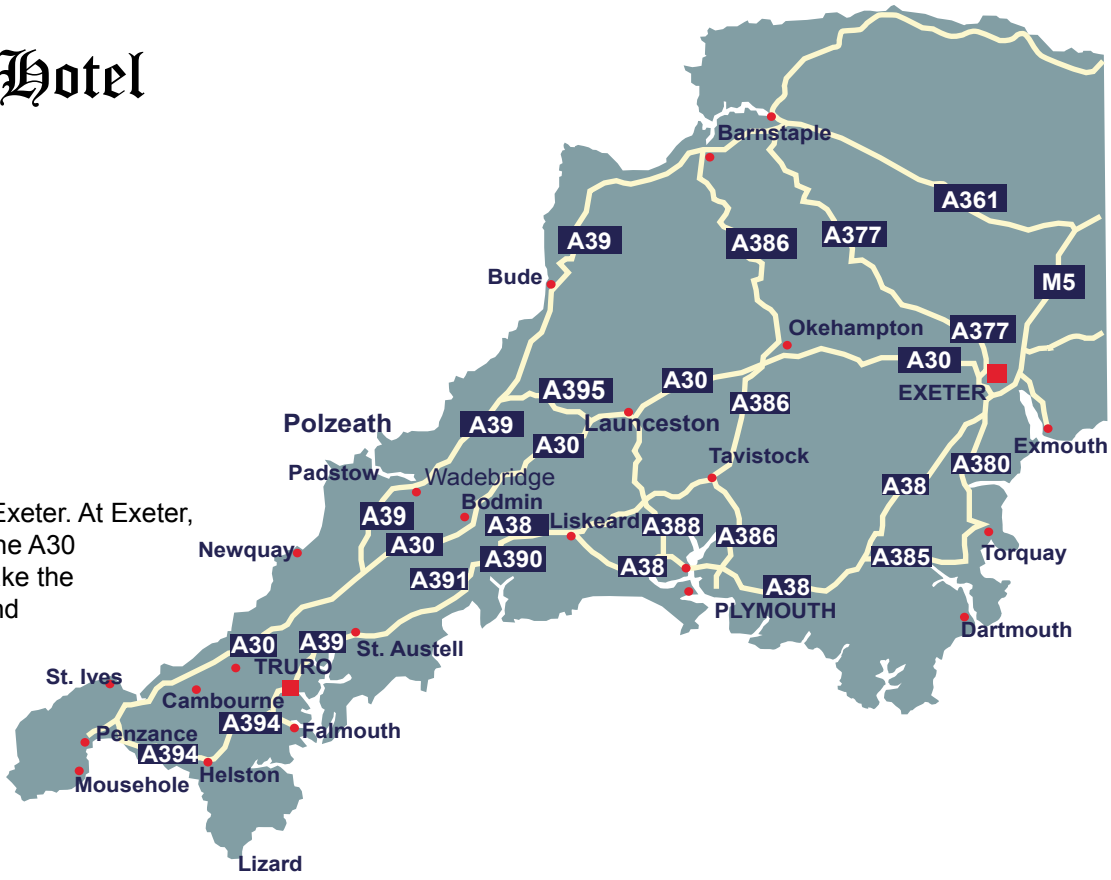
The Old Ship Hotel
Padstow
Cornwall



Directions by road

By road: Take the M5 or A303 to Exeter. At Exeter, take the A30 westbound. Follow the A30 for approximately 65 miles then take the turning signposted for Padstow and follow this road into the town.

As you enter Padstow, drive along the road past the Tesco store on your right hand side, taking the right hand turning signposted for the town centre.

The Old Ship Hotel car park is approached from St. Saviour's Lane, the entrance being the last gateway on the right at the very top of the lane.

By train: Taking the train is a quick and relaxing way to get to Cornwall. Services from London and other main line stations to Bodmin Parkway are fast and frequent. From the station at Bodmin, take a taxi to The Old Ship Hotel.

By air: Newquay Airport, only 6 miles away, has daily links with an increasing number of regional airports around the UK, including London (6 flights a day), Leeds/Bradford, Manchester, Birmingham, Bristol, Teeside and Dublin. Once at Newquay Airport, hire a car or take a taxi to The Old Ship.
